Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Eucharist.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive
You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually
into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

This month two Marian Feasts are not on the liturgical calendar since they fall on Sunday, September 8, the Birthday of Mary and September 15, the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows. Although not celebrated liturgically we can celebrate them. Let us honor Mary on these Feasts and seek her powerful intercession for our families, our country, and the world.

Restoring the Reign of Jesus in Our Society A Devotion So Needed at This Time

Confidence in God's infinite love is at the heart of First Friday Devotions.

This devotion is finding renewed popularity and momentum in these challenging times. "Burning with divine love for all mankind," Christ spoke, in 1675, to the nun, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque while she was in prayer. He revealed to her His Sacred Heart, an image which Catholic homes display today.

Within this vision of the Sacred Heart was His message. Christ asked Catholics to attend Mass and receive Communion on the First Friday of each month in reparation for the sins of the world, which surround His burning heart with a thorny knot of ingratitude and blasphemy. The Lord promised "all the graces necessary to [one's] state of life" by consoling Him on nine consecutive First Fridays.

Join the Divine Mercy Fathers on YouTube to participate with others on First Fridays and First Saturdays. Many times Fr. Chris Alar, MIC, presides. Check at your church; many churches schedule First Friday and First Saturday devotions. Whether with the Divine Mercy Fathers, in church, or at home, build your confidence in God's infinite love, by praying as the Lord and Our Holy Mother have always instructed us!

This First Friday devotion leads us on the Path to Peace in our family, country, and in the world. This long-time tradition brings hope to humanity by restoring the reign of Christ in lives and in society, so needed at this time.

See Page 4 to order the 12 Promises of the Sacred Heart.

Some of the Promises of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary

I will establish peace in their homes.

I will comfort them in all their afflictions.

I will be their secure refuge during life, and above all, in death.

I will bless every place in which an image of my Heart is exposed and honored.

Those who shall promote this devotion shall have their names written in my Heart.

Let us reflect on these promises and how each one can impact our lives and society. Make a commitment to the First Friday Devotion.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, we fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, our Mother! To you we come, before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful. Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.

We at Radio Family Rosary remember her for the hospitality leadership she extended at many of our functions.
